Local Business Spotlight: Nuts About Savannah

Savannah native, realtor, and entrepreneur Delores Young-Wilson is the owner of Nuts About Savannah, a nut-centered business popular for their signature cinnamon glazed nuts, gourmet popcorn, and coffee. Pecans, almonds, and cashews are roasted on site at both their Savannah Mall and Downtown locations. Nuts About Savannah customizes party trays and gift baskets for teams, businesses, and any special event. Their products can be found in store, online, and for guests at the Hyatt Regency in Savannah. The company flagship store at the Savannah Mall boasts a relaxing environment equipped with comfortable leather chairs, free Wi-Fi, and the intoxicating aroma of cinnamon and sugar.

Delores participated in the 12-week Business Education Course and the Web Design workshop at the Savannah Entrepreneurial Center to solidify her business plans and to improve her online presence. At the SEC, Delores received advice on financing, growing, and expanding her business while filling in the gaps from her previous experience as a realtor. Delores also took advantage of the mentorship opportunities from SCORE Savannah to help launch her second location on Drayton Street. Because of her passion and success as a Savannah entrepreneur, Delores was honored with the City's "2017 Best Growth in Business" award during National Small Business Week.

For more information, visit Nuts About Savannah at the Savannah Mall and their new downtown location at 41 Drayton Street.
